The Eagle Oakes Homeowners Association utilizes the resources available on the Community Association Collection System (CACS) provided by the law offices of Foth & Foth on a regular basis. This resource is priceless when it comes to maintaining a financially healthy and legally governed association.

Maintaining accurate records is paramount when it comes to matters that arise in such a venue. The availability of having daily updates posted on the CACS web site assists Eagle Oakes in staying on top of any and all legal situations facing our association.

Thank you,

Dear Art,

This past couple of years, as Foth & Foth clients, we have been using the Community Association Collection System (CACS) to keep track of our legal accounts. I just wanted to tell you how invaluable this tool has been to us. Instead of calling your office for information, it's here at our fingertips. There are so many times that we log on to get answers to questions that previously would have meant a call to your office. Not that we don't enjoy speaking with your staff, but this system is a very efficient way to save us all time! And since the HOA Board is comprised of volunteers who already put in a lot of hours, free time is at a premium. The site is very comprehensive in terms of the information that's there for us to view. And it's also helpful to get the automatic email updates as these legal cases progress through the system.

It's nice to be dealing with a law firm that is smart enough to take advantage of the technology available to them. I'm sure you're aware that there are many law firms that have not joined the technological age. Bravo!

Sincerely,

Susan Tafoya, President
Lexington Ridge HOA
